Additional Activities

- I currently am an administrator on a quite active web development forum: www.broadiecarpark.com
- I am always developing and maintaining my personal website: www.flobi.com (Please note that it is under perpetual construction as it is a place I use to learn and test ideas and scripts.)
- I have created a website content management system using ASP with Microsoft Access. I am currently writing a new version in PHP with MySQL and have already written a smaller version in PHP (without MySQL) already.
- I have developed numerous website layouts and scripts for friends and charitable organizations, for instance, the Alleluia Community: www.yeslord.com; Augusta1.com: www.augusta1.com; and my brother: drusha.net.
- I am a member of the HTML Writers Guild.
